

Quarterly network condition narrative

This narrative summarises the general condition of the network as observed during routine patrols. No tabulated defect register accompanies this document; findings are described qualitatively in the paragraphs below.

Vegetation pressure remains the dominant theme in the northern feeders, with several spans approaching statutory clearance limits. Hardware condition is broadly acceptable although isolated corrosion was noted.